

Violence, Trauma & Addiction

Positive Interventions

Friday 18th September 2009

9.30am - 12.30pm

Parish Halls, 266 George Street, G1

An opportunity to develop understanding of the links between violence, trauma and addictions, and to find out about 'what works' in supporting people who have challenging behaviour as a result of complex needs.

Speakers will include a representative from Glasgow Addiction Psychology Services, Julian Heng, Open Road (men in prostitution), and Frances Monaghan, WISE Women (Personal safety and confidence building work with women)

This seminar is open to all and will be of particular interest to members of local Drug and Alcohol Forums, community addiction services and family support groups.

The event is free of charge and open to all. If you are interested in attending please return the attached registration form to Amy at Women's Support Project as soon as possible.

This event is part of GRANDweek 2009

This event has been organised by the Women's Support Project and financed via the GRAND Local Grant Scheme.
